NOTIFICATION

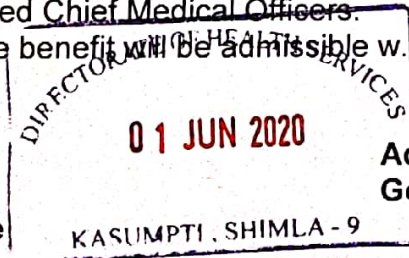

Nutrition plays an important role in successful outcome of TB treatment. From 1st April 2018 onwards, TB patients in Himachal Pradesh are getting benefits of Nikshay Poshan Yojna @ Rs. 500/-per month through DBT during the course of treatment. Considering the disease pathophysiology, longer duration of treatment and pill burden, Drug Resistant TB patients requires additional nutrition supplements.

Department of Health & Family Welfare Himachal Pradesh is pleased to provide financial assistance of Rs. 1500/- (Rupees One Thousand Five Hundred) per month under "Mukhya Mantri Kshay Rog Nivaran Yojna" to all Drug Resistant TB (DR-TB) patients registered in different Districts of the State to support and supplement such patients for adequate nutrition during treatment period.

Beneficiaries of the scheme will be all Drug Resistant TB patients, who are registered in any DRTB Centre/PHI in Himachal Pradesh (Source: Nikshay Portal). Scheme is linked to treatment adherence; patients interrupting treatment/Lost To Follow Up patients will not be eligible for benefits of enhanced financial assistance.

The expenditure on this account will be debited under Major Head of Account 2210-06-200-03-SOON-SOE-20 (Other Charges), Non Plan, Demand No.9. Health Department, Himachal Pradesh. Payment to beneficiary will be released through DBT by the concerned Chief Medical Officers.

The benefit will be admissible w.e.f. 1st June 2020.
